2025 Nevada Humane Scorecard

2025 Scored Nevada Legislation

Cindy Lou's Law (AB 487)

A ✓ indicates the member voted in favor of the bill as introduced in the state assembly. In its original iteration, Cindy Lou's Law would eliminate the sale of dogs and cats in retail pet stores, thus ending the cruel puppy mill to pet store pipeline in Nevada.

Sponsors: Assembly Committee on Natural Resources

Status: Assembly did not concur with Senate amended bill version.

Pets in Housing (SB 166)

A ✓ indicates they voted in favor of SB 166, a bill to remove breed bans from insurance carried by commercial properties. The bill also requires certain types of subsidized housing to allow tenants at least one pet. This builds on an existing law that prohibits breed restrictions in private homeowners insurance and expands it to commercial properties such as apartment complexes, removing yet another barrier for Nevadans with pets seeking housing.

Sponsors: Sen. Melanie Schieble (D-9)

Status: Signed into law by the Governor.

Reba's Law (AB 381)

A ✓ indicates they voted in favor of increasing penalties for certain types of animal crimes. Reba's Law also revises the process to seize and care for animals treated cruelly, creates tougher punishments for harming or killing police dogs, and provides civil immunity for aiding an animal trapped in a hot car under certain circumstances.

Sponsors: Asm. Melissa Hardy (R-22), Asm. Brian Hibbetts (R-13), Asm. Elaine Marzola (D-21), Asm. Brittney Miller (D-5), and Sen. Melanie Scheible (D-9)

Status: Signed into law by the Governor.

Animal Welfare Concerns Signage (AB 136)

A ✓ indicates a vote in favor of AB 136. The bill requires certain businesses that have paid animal interactions to post a publicly visible sign informing patrons who have concerns about the welfare of said animals of how and to whom to report a complaint to.

Sponsors: Asm. Venicia Considine (D-18)

Status: Signed into law by the Governor.
